

DEFENDER COLLECTION

Control Software Suite

Businesses of all sizes need a versatile, flexible suite of software to help them effectively manage security on removable storage media. The robust functionality of the Defender Collection Control Software Suite gives IT management and security officers the tools they need to help users share data with those who need it and are authorized to access it, while preventing critical data from getting into the wrong hands.

STORE › PROTECT › CONNECT ››››

MAXIMIZE SECURITY. MINIMIZE RISK.

With the ability to deploy and manage removable storage devices, the Defender Collection Control Software Suite meets the needs of a wide range of users in government, enterprise and SMB environments, enabling them to better manage the risks and responsibilities of increasing data growth and portability.

CONTROL SERVER

Enhanced Central Management

- Policy management and enforcement for virtually all removable storage devices – including USB devices and optical media
- Distributed provisioning for easy management and configuration of multiple remote devices
- Remote kill function for disabling lost and stolen devices
- Forensic-level auditing and reporting at file level

CONTROL CLIENT

PC-Based Removable Storage Device Management

- Ability to define types of removable storage to be used on a specific PC
- Ability to define how removable storage devices can be used
- Flexibility to control types of files copied to removable storage devices
- Deployment of antivirus or forced scans prior to reading a device

CONTROL APPLLET

Device > Control Server

- Enables device integration with Control Server
- Optional device encryption & antivirus deployment

CONTROL SERVER

Enhanced Central Management

For network administrators + IT Professionals who want to centrally manage their removable storage device

- Automatic user identify and password management
- Dynamic revocation of lost removable storage devices
- Strong password enforcement + reauthorization interval
- Configure policies for automatic encryption
- Configurable audit and event tracking for user devices

CONTROL CLIENT

PC-Based Removable Storage Device Management

Gives organizations the ability to define the types of removable storage to be used on a specific PC, how these removable drives can be used and the flexibility to control the types of files copied to removable storage devices.

- Blocks unauthorized devices
- Automatic encryption of approved nonencrypted devices
- Optional launch of anti-malware, anti-virus scan to access
- Supports all manufacturer devices and media
- FIPS 140-2 certified encryption
- Administrator central management
- Revoke access to lost or stolen devices
- Remote password recovery

CONTROL APPLET

Enables device integration with Control Server

Allows organizations to manage other removable media and integrate them with their Control Server.

- Supports all brand manufacturers
- Optional powerful AES 256 encryption FIPS validated
- Requires no administrative rights
- Optional anti-virus
- Automatic user identity and password management
- Detailed audit trail
- Revocation of lost drives
- Single sign-on capability
- Reauthorization interval settings